

Dr. Annelies Vredeveldt

Curriculum Vitae

Synopsis

My area of expertise is memory in legal settings. I am co-founder and director of the Amsterdam Laboratory for Legal Psychology (ALLP) at VU Amsterdam. My ERC Starting Grant research team investigates eyewitness testimony in cross-cultural settings. I regularly appear as an expert witness in criminal cases and serve on advisory committees of the Netherlands Register of Court Experts and the Dutch National Police. My teaching includes the Psychology course in the international Law in Society programme and Project Reasonable Doubt, in which potentially dubious criminal convictions are re-evaluated.

Education

- 2008–2011 Ph.D. in Experimental Psychology The benefits of eye-closure on eyewitness memory
University of York, United Kingdom. Advisors: Alan D. Baddeley and Graham J. Hitch.
Fulbright-funded research visit to John Jay College of Criminal Justice, New York, USA.
- 2007–2008 M.Sc. in Psychology and Law
Maastricht University, The Netherlands. Graduated cum laude (highest distinction).
Research internship at University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand.
- 2004–2007 B.A. in the Social Sciences
University College Utrecht, The Netherlands. Graduated summa cum laude (highest distinction).

Academic Positions

- 2018— Associate Professor
Department of Criminology, Faculty of Law, VU Amsterdam, The Netherlands
- 2013–2018 Assistant Professor
Department of Criminology, Faculty of Law, VU Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Teaching Experience

- 2019— Course coordinator and lecturer, Psychology, VU Amsterdam.
I have developed, coordinate and teach the course Psychology in the Bachelor's programme Law in Society, which uses a multi-disciplinary approach with a strong social sciences component and a cross-cultural emphasis.
- 2013— Project supervisor, Project Gerede Twijfel [Project Reasonable Doubt], VU Amsterdam.
Supervising teams of 8-12 students investigating selected criminal cases. Past investigations have contributed to the re-opening of closed cases.
2017-2022 Course coordinator: Organising the selection and assessment of potential cases and students, coordinating faculty supervision.
- 2012— Thesis supervisor, Universities of Cape Town, Utrecht and VU Amsterdam.
I regularly supervise research thesis students (usually at the Masters level).
- 2011— Guest Lecturer, Universities of York, Cape Town, Utrecht, Maastricht and VU Amsterdam.
I regularly give guest lectures on legal psychology, witness memory and investigative interviewing.
- 2008–2011 Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of York.
Tutorials, practicals, and marking for a Masters/Ph.D. course on Research Design & Statistics and undergraduate courses on Cognition, Comparative Cognition, Development & Language, Brain & Behaviour, Social Psychology, and Scientific Skills for Psychologists.

Teaching Qualifications

- 2019-2020 Senior Teaching Qualification (STQ), VU Amsterdam.
Year-long training programme on leading educational improvement at the curriculum level. Included six plenary sessions, four personal coaching sessions and the creation of an evidence-based portfolio. My STQ project involved the implementation of the Mixed Classroom Educational Model in the new bachelor programme Law in Society.

- 2019 Training 'Mixed Classroom in Practice', VU Amsterdam.
Three-day training on incorporating the VU Mixed Classroom Educational Model into teaching practices. The Mixed Classroom is an educational approach that builds upon the diverse perspectives in the classroom to enrich the learning experience for all students present.
- 2019 Training 'Supervising PhD candidates', VU Amsterdam.
Three-day training to develop coaching skills to help PhD candidates develop themselves professionally, solve problems independently, focus and communicate.
- 2009-2010 Preparing Future Academics (PFA) programme, University of York.
Training on lecturing, course design, assessment, plagiarism, and quality enhancement; development of teaching plans; reflections on teaching practice; and construction of a final portfolio of evidence. Equivalent to Dutch university teaching qualification (BKO).
